APPLIED CORPORATE FINANCE

Get up to speed in a fraction of time! Acquire the latest tools and techniques of corporate finance to sharpen your business decisions

INTRODUCTION - Why you should attend

GET UP TO SPEED IN A FRACTION OF TIME!

Many important business decisions need to be analysed in financial terms. Whether the concern is the appraisal of a capital project or the valuation of a business for initial public offer, the tools of Applied Corporate Finance are required for understanding how to analyse and estimate cash flows, and to estimate the rate of return required.

This programme will show you how to apply the tools of corporate finance to a range of important business issues in a user friendly way. It is intended for both financial managers who would like to develop their skills further, and non-financial managers who would like to consolidate and develop insights gained from practical experience.

Take stock of wealth of experience and solid advice from Lee Fok Chong. His primary involvement has been in Applied Corporate Finance and the design of numerous executive finance related programmes.

YOU WILL LEARN HOW TO

- Create a creative accounting system
- Analyse financial statements and shareholder value
- Apply valuation techniques
- Estimate the potential for refinancing
- Identify the value of the various parts of the business
