Attracting More of What You Want and Less of What You Don't Want

This is the Law of Attraction.

It is about you and the vibes that you send out. Vibes are vibrations about your moods and feelings. The vibes that you send out can be either negative or positive. The Law of Attraction responds by matching and giving you more of the same vibes that you send out. So what you attract is the result of the vibrations that you are sending. In short, you get what you vibrate.

So, how can you apply the Law of Attraction in your life?

As an individual you can use the Law of Attraction to attract more money, the ideal job, the relationships that you desire, good health and the life of abundance that you want.

In your business, you can apply the Law of Attraction to:
